Last Friday nights' Annual CITCSA Awards Presentation Dinner event held at the Grand Chancellor Hotel, Adelaide, was a great night which acknowledged the outstanding achievements of CITCSA member organisations.

The Hon Tom Koutsantonis MP, Minister for Industry and Trade, in delivering his keynote address, paid tribute to the 40 member organisations of CITCSA for their contribution to the State's international trade effort over many years and looks forward to working with CITCSA in the future.

Mr Nick Begakis AM, Chairman of CITCSA thanked the Minister for the Government's continued moral and financial support of CITCSA. He said that CITCSA looks forward to continuing its work with the Department of Trade in complementing their international trade activity in countries where the government has local representation, and particularly in fulfilling market access facilitation for bilateral trade in niche markets in countries throughout the world where SA is not locally represented.

Guests enjoyed a four course meal with tasting plates for entrée and dessert. Premium wines were provided by the Ross Estate Wines from the Barossa.

Ms Heidi Van Gerwen

Congratulations to Ms Heidi Van Gerwen, Hon Consul for Belgium, who won the best ethnic dress individual prize in her glorious traditional Belgium outfit. Congratulations to the Australia New Zealand Business Council and the Australian Asian Chamber of Commerce and Industry tables who won the best themed table competition.

Guest speaker Mr Aaron Potts from Opportunity International Australia spoke of their charter to give people living in poverty opportunities to transform their lives. They do this with small loans (microfinance) that help them start a business, earn an income and provide for their families. Opportunity International Australia focuses its work on three main countries – India, Indonesia and the Philippines.

Aaron Potts, Opportunity International Australia
